Large home for a large family

Looks will deceive, but once you step inside, it is only at this point that you will be amazed at how large this family home is.

Firstly, the inviting formal lounge room is situated at the front of the home, featuring attractive pine dados, offering a cosy open fire backed up by the installation of a split system for all year round comfort. Two of the four bedrooms and a central bathroom are accessed from this area.

Step through into the beautiful updated kitchen which includes a dishwasher, gas cooker and a very convenient island bench.

From there the third bedroom is on the right, laundry and second toilet is located on the left.

Now this is when things get interesting, because this is where the massive extension begins. The forth or main bedroom is huge, and accompanies another large bathroom with a convenient second toilet.
