Under Offer.

Once upon a time, there was a delightful brick home which had been totally refurbished and renovated throughout. The current owner had completed all the works, there was nothing else to do, only the new owners to move in!

The tasteful use and blend of polished floor boards, neutral tones and fittings throughout, allows for perfect continuity of whatever furnishings one chooses to introduce.

The living area, consisting of lounge room, dining area, and kitchen have been opened up, to permit that open plan living ambience, which these days is convenient and functional.

The well planned main bedroom offers a beneficial ensuite, which includes a shower, vanity and second toilet. The renovated bathroom is appropriately found in a central location, next to the separate toilet.
