An outstanding home in select "Manifold Street" UNDER OFFER

Located in popular and much sought after tree lined Manifold Street is this impressive and much loved family home. Comprising four large bedrooms all with built-in robes, and provision for an ensuite off the main if required, there is plenty of room for the growing family. This home has open-plan living, dining and lounge areas off the spacious timber kitchen and the bathroom, separate toilet and laundry are all part of a recent extension, along with a study and special upgrades such as the gas central heating and a security system.

This property is perfect for those who love to be surrounded by family and friends and who love to entertain. Inside and out there are plenty of areas for the family to escape too, or to follow their own special interests. Sited on an allotment of approximately 1012 m2, the property is constructed in a low maintenance render finish, with secure and abundant car accommodation, including 2 generous garaged car spaces/workshop area, 2 carport
