Do you dream about escaping the busy city lifestyle, maybe you are searching for an affordable first home, or are you yearning to secure a budget priced weekender? Whichever option may suit your needs, why not consider moving to Beeac and purchase yourself this cute railway cottage sited on an allotment of approx. 1012 m2 or 1/4acre. Surrounded by rural paddocks this locale creates a space of quietness and tranquility.

The 3 bedroom low maintenance clad home has timber jarrah floor boards, and features unusual but effective dados, and walls that have been tastefully finished with the use of corrugated iron.

The country style eat-in kitchen leads into the lounge where you will be kept warm and cool by its wood stove and convenient reverse cycle air conditioner. The large family sized bathroom has a separate shower & bath which is conveniently located to the rear of the home, making central access from within and outside.
