Warmth of polished hardwood floor boards plus stylish ornate cornices and ceiling roses greet you as you step inside this solid and quality built home of the stylish Art Deco Era. Walk through and you will admire the lovely open living area of lounge room, dining and kitchen, such a delightful space to reside. Everyone knows that homes built of this era, were built with quality products, and the homes are very solid in construction. Freshly painted throughout, new floor coverings, are just some of the many more attractions to appreciate. Sited on a sizeable allotment of approximately 943 m², offering a large solid shed and a very secure rear yard. Close to secondary schools, Blue Water Fitness, and a short walk into the centre of Colac.
