Rare Beauty in a Stunning Location.
The rare beauty and stunning location of this property speaks for itself. When driving through the front entrance to the property you will be captivated and greeted with stunning views over the Otway Ranges. The drive leads you down to a private, beautifully positioned home site. The unique volcanic stone built 3 bedroom home, set on approx. 16 hectares is a rare type of property that don't come on the market often. When entering the home you are welcomed with volcanic stone walls inside and out, exposed timber beams and lining boards to the ceiling with floating timber flooring throughout the open kitchen and dining areas, making you feel right at home enjoying the atmosphere of country living. The home site is carved into the hill with beautiful established gardens featuring a number of fruit trees with views over the valley and at times the friendly wild life including kangaroos, koalas and echidnas will be grazing around you or just passing through.
