Location

Location, charm, uniqueness, quality, condition, all the boxes are ticked. 'Rothsay' is a once in a life time opportunity to acquire a very charming property, located in tightly held Grant Street Colac. Being a very well regarded, and highly sought area, you are sited only a two block stroll from Lake Colac, and the same from the main hub of Colac.

Not only does this property offer you location, this home is distinctively special, being built in a unique "Tudor Style" influence and nestled amongst old established well maintained gardens. This is a picture to behold.

Upon entry into the home, you will be greeted and amazed by the front entry door. This stunning solid oak door originated from "Cororooke House", this is another unique feature of this classic home.

Distinctive clinker brick in construction, this home is in incredible condition, and has been lovingly maintained throughout its 90 odd years showcasing the original character and charm of this by gone era. Upon inspection, you will notice the natural north facing light, filtering throughout this home.
