If you are seeking a quiet country property as your residence, or perhaps a get-away, this may be the property for you! Located within the township of Cororooke, and only 10 minutes from all the amenities of Colac. This lovely Californian Bungalow period of home, has just been freshly painted externally and looks amazing. Upon entry, you are greeted with a sweeping veranda leading to the front double door entrance beckoning you into a lovely foyer. A circular feature of lead lighting also greets you. The original section of the home comprises three large bedroom, and an optional larger fourth or second living room, which ever suits your family necessitates. As you make your way through the home, you will appreciate the high ceilings and period details. Moving into the rear, and more recently built section of the home, you step into a spacious extension, which accommodates the open plan living, kitchen and meals area. The kitchen is undergoing some cabinetry updates. Electric cooking a dishwasher and a lovely large walk in pantry are just some convenient inclusions, along with a large
