Immaculate home

Totally refurbished inside and out, all this home needs is YOU!
The current owners have undertaken a great amount of love and care, to create and present this amazing property to the next proud owners, with absolutely nothing to do, but move yourself in....
As you step into the front entry, you can't but notice the immediate attention to detail. The tasteful decor is neutral, and very sophisticated. Featuring tones of grey and creams, along with striking polished floor boards throughout... wow... what a great palate of colours for you to work your furniture into.
The main hub of the home comprises a gorgeous space including the lounge room, formal dining area and updated kitchen, of which all soak up the lovely north facing sunshine. The dining area leads outdoors onto an amazing undercover outdoor alfresco area.
