More than meets the eye!

Not every day does a property become available for sale that has so many surprises awaiting, but 38 McDonald Street is certainly such a property. Upon inspection, you will be impressed with what there is to offer the new buyer, internally and externally.

Location is a huge highlight, as this home is sited in one of Colac's well regarded areas. A two minute walk to the shores of Lake Colac, and the meandering walking paths, and about the same in the other direction to the Colac West convenience store, post office, butcher and pharmacy. If you keep walking a further 5 minutes you will find yourself in the centre of Colac. How convenient is that!

First impression will not disappoint, when you step into the entry of this immaculate home. You will be greeted and surprised by an expansive open plan living area and formal dining area. Two lovely and cosy gas artificial log heaters, of which are virtually new, along with a large reverse cycle split system and also central gas heating throughout. There's no problems keeping your family comfortable here!
