Handy location

As you step into the front entry of this contemporary and elegant double brick home, you will appreciate that this home was a special build in an era of quality. The family have immaculately maintained this property over these years, so all the charming traits still shine through today.

This very convenient location is about as central as you can get. Being straight opposite the IGA supermarket, opposite the Colac Primary School and just around the corner the Colac East Kindergarten. Not to mention, only a short stroll to the banks of Lake Colac and its peaceful walking paths in one direction, and the main shopping hub of Colac in the other. Entry into the dwelling, via the front foyer, will lead you left down the passageway accessing to all three bedrooms, or turn right into the very spacious and elegant lounge room. Tucked into the corner you have a built-in bar for entertaining, and a sliding door from this living area, accessing outdoors onto the large North facing patio. Step around the corner into a kitchen/meals/ family area, which also leads via another slider onto this outdoor
